

Computing Key Skills Year 3

Espresso Coding

Programming	To create and debug simple programs that solve a problem
	To know that programs execute by following a series of precise instructions
	To use reasoning skills to predict the behavior of simple programs
Internet	To know that the internet is a collection of different pages that can be made by anyone
	To access websites and retrieve information from them
Data manipulation	To save and organise a range of file types in specific places (e.g. create new folders)
	To find a range of file types in different locations and copy and paste them into a different location
E safety	To recognise different types of content on websites (e.g. adverts, links) and know that some things may not be true or safe
	To know that some material on the internet belongs to people at that it is wrong to take it
	To understand that any personal information I put online can be seen and used by others