

Computing Key Skills

Year 4

Logo, Espresso Coding

Programming	To create and debug a program that performs a task and suggest ways that it could be improved
	To use short hand phrases in my programs that I can reuse
	To use reasoning skills to predict the behaviour of more complex programs
Internet	To recognise the features of different types of website (social media, shop, search engine, information etc.)
	To use a search engine to find information or media
Data manipulation	To enter information to make a graph and print it
	To create a presentation using text and images
E safety	To understand appropriate and inappropriate use of the Internet.
	To keep personal information and passwords private
	To understand the need for rules to keep me safe
	To know to make sure an adult knows what I am doing online
	To know to tell an adult if I see content that makes me uncomfortable or if I make contact with people I don't know