

History Key skills

Year 2

Examples of significant people:	Examples of Significant events beyond living memory	Examples of significant historical people or places in my own locality
Elizabeth I and Queen Victoria Christopher Columbus and Neil Armstrong William Caxton and Tim Berners-Lee Pieter Bruegel the Elder and LS Lowry Rosa Parks and Emily Davison Mary Seacote and/or Florence Nightingale and Edith Cavell	The Great Fire of London The first aeroplane flight Events commemorated through festivals or anniversaries	Linking to other significant events/people studied Local castles Building of the railway The history of tourism - seaside The bombing of Yeovil Treasure and hoards

Lives of significant people	To know where the people I am studying fit within a chronological framework
	To identify similarities and differences between the times of the people I have studied
	To give similarities and differences between the lives of the people I have studied
	To give similarities and differences between the achievements of the people I have studied
	To use sources to find out information about a person I am studying
Significant events beyond living memory	To know where the event I am studying fits within a chronological framework
	To identify similarities and differences between the time of my event and nowadays
	To know why an event was significant nationally or globally
	To use sources to find out information about an event I am studying
Locality	To know historically significant events/people or places in my own locality
Historical skills	To know some changes that have happened in living memory
	To place events and artefacts in order on a time line
	To label time lines with words or phrases such as: past, present, older and newer
	To understand historical terms (century, war, peace, monarch, local history, national history, world history)