Dear Parents/Carers

On Thursday 5 March, we will be celebrating World Book Day 2020! As you know, we try to vary the ways we celebrate our love of books as much as possible each year.

This year, as a staff we have chosen to celebrate the words that make reading such a wonderful experience by having our very own 'Birchfield Vocabulary Parade'! We would like to invite the children to attend school on World Book Day dressed up as an adjective of their choice. These are words that can describe the appearance objects or characters, such as sparkly, bright and spotty or characteristics of objects or characters such as athletic, strange and royal.

These are just examples and it can be as simple or complex as you like. The children will also need to display their chosen adjective on a sign or as part of their costume.

This does not need to be an expensive costume and is something that can ideally be created with your child. Some of our staff will also be joining in with our own words too.

We have included a 'bank' of adjectives attached with some examples to help you get started. We will also be completing some activities in school on the day.

If you have any queries about our celebrations, please feel free to pop in and see me! Thank you, as always, for all your support.

Yours sincerely
